- Cost to provide condominium documents to purchaser
- Repair Escrow Fee of $200 where applicable
- Settlement or Closing Fee: The Department will pay HUD's closing agent. This is the purchaser's cost if another agent is chosen.
- Recording Fees: HUD will automatically pay recording fees and charges for the deed (i.e., nominal amount charged per page for recordation).

Closing costs that may be paid by HUD.

Purchasers may specify a dollar amount on Line 5 of form HUD-9548, Sales Contract that they expect the Department to pay towards their financing and closing costs. HOC REO Directors have the flexibility to prescribe the maximum amount of the closing costs that HUD will pay on line 5, which may range from three to five percent of the purchase price. HUD will pay the lesser of the amount requested in Line 5 or the actual costs of the items specified. Any funds remaining after the allowable closing costs have been paid will not be credited to the purchaser(s) at sales closing.

Sales commission for the selling broker will be paid by HUD, only if indicated on Line 6a of form HUD-9548, Sales Contract.

The following list represents the complete list of additional allowable closing costs that may be paid by HUD at sales closing if there are sufficient funds on Line 5 of form HUD-9548, Sales Contract to cover the expenses:

- Appraisal Fee: HUD will pay for the Appraisal on an FHA 203(k) loan that is necessary to determine the "after rehab" value.
HUD will pay for appraisals that expired prior to Sales Contract execution.
- Credit report: Up to $20
- Flood Certification: If the property is being offered with FHA insurance, is on a Flood Plain, HUD will pay for Flood Certification.

- Home Inspection
(includes testing for lead based paint, radon, mold, etc.)

- Homeowner's Warranty:

The following table represents the amounts that will be paid.
